HATCHETITES TO MEET HILLTOPPERS SAT. EVE.

Georgetown Presents Usual Formidable Aggregation for Crucial Battle.

G. W. EXPECTS VICTORY.

Flavin, Florence, Zazalli, Start for Blue and Gray—Experienced Men... in Line-up.

George Washington's formidable basketball team will tackle the Georgetown quint in the crucial battle to-morrow night at the Coliseum Gym, Ninth and Pennsylvania Avenue. Both teams have been priming for the engagement, and as usual a hard fought contest is expected.

G. W. has a start on the Hilltoppers and has played five games, emerging as victor in four. A comparison of the two teams may be gaged by their showing against the Quantico Marines. The Hatchettes defeated the Marines, 36 to 23, and Georgetown won by a 22 to 17 score. This was G. U.'s first game, and more can be expected of the Blue and Gray tossers in the coming fray.

It took the G. U. players quite a while to get going against the Marines, but they rapidly improved in handling the ball and goal shooting. Also their defense became so strong that the Marines were unable to cage a field goal in the second half.

The Hatchettes have been going at top speed and may get the jump on the Hilltop men, but on the other hand, the Blue and Gray dribblers are "hard as nails," for practically the entire squad has just emerged from a strenuous football campaign.

Flavin, G. U.'s star performer, and Byrne, a former Gonzaga cage star, will start in the forward positions, while Paul Florence, who has recently reported, will hold down the pivot berth. Carney and Zazalli, two sturdy football men will give the Hatchettes forwards plenty of opposition. Zazalli tosses the free throws and he caged 10 in 14 tries against the Marines. In the second half he got eight chances to throw goals from the foul line, and he did not fall once. Zazalli's accuracy in throwing fouls may be the deciding factor in the game with the Buff and Blue.

For G. W., Coach Morse will start Gossnell and Springston, forwards; Brown or Klopsch, center; and Capt. Daily and Goldstein, guards. After putting in a week of hard practice these men should be capable of defeating the G. U. basketballers, and judging from the attitude they are taking, they are intent on winning the contest.

PRELIMINARY GAME TO BE PLAYED BY FROSH

Georgetown Freshmen basketballers will invade the Coliseum Gym to-morrow evening to tackle G. W.'s strong Frosh "five" as a preliminary game to the big Varsity-G. U. contest.

The Frosh team of G. W. has been going at top speed and has won four out of five contests played to date. It has scored victories over Tech, Eastern, Business, and Bliss Electrical School, but was set back by the strong Western aggregation.

G. U.'s Freshmen have not played any regular contests as yet, but they are bound to put a sturdy team on the floor Saturday night. There is a wealth of material at the Hilltop and many men have been striving for places on the team.

Coach Morse will probably start Beeton and Woerner, forwards; Taylor, center; and Capt. Kent and Joyner, guards. This combination should set a fast pace after a few rough spots in team play have been worked off. The Freshmen are all there when it comes to "fight," which was largely responsible for the victories they have registered in former games.

The Freshmen team has been giving the Varsity plenty of opposition in practice scrimmages, and some royal battles have been staged.

COLUMBIAN WOMEN TO HOLD RECEPTION FOR HODGKINS

Affair to be Noteworthy Event; All Columbian Women Invited.

Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Peet will preside at the tea tables at the annual reception of the Columbian Women of George Washington University in honor of President and Mrs. Howard Lincoln Hodgkins, to be held on Friday evening at 1719 I Street.

In the receiving line with Dr. and Mrs. Hodgkins will be Mrs. John T. Erwin, president of the club, and the other officers; Mrs. Myron M. Parker and Miss Alice B. Henning, vice presidents; Mrs. William C. Ruediger, recording secretary; Miss Julia L. V. McCord, treasurer; Miss Ruby Nevins, corresponding secretary, and Miss Henryette Brumm, historian.

Assisting will be Mrs. William H. Herron, Mrs. Henry Grattan Doyle, and Mrs. John R. Lapham. Invitations have been sent to members of the Board of Trustees, University Council, and the various faculties to attend with their wives. Members of the Columbian women may invite escorts.

The reception should be noteworthy, because Dr. Hodgkins, who by the way, is the first alumnus of the University ever to serve as its president, has made a splendid record during his administration, establishing new courses of study, raising the already high academic standards, and installing the first Dean of Women in the history of the institution. He has also been active in alumni affairs.

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY LOST IN COLUMBIAN DEBATE

Mr. Crowell and Miss Smith Win Individual Honors—Next Meeting February 2.

A debate upon the subject, "Resolved, That the convention system of nominating candidates for the presidency of the United States be displaced by a Presidential Primary," was won by a negative team, composed of Messrs. Ditzleman and Crowell, before the Columbian Debating Society last Friday evening. The affirmative argument was presented by Miss Smith and Miss Maffett. Individual first and second honors were won by Mr. Crowell and Miss Smith, respectively.

The next meeting of the society will be held Friday, February 2, 1923. The meeting will be devoted to impromptu speeches on the part of the members upon the subject, "Resolved, That France's action in invading Germany was justified." Each speaker will be allowed eight minutes. A large attendance is expected in view of the fact that the mid-year examinations will have been completed.

The mid-year election of officers for the society will be held on the following Friday night, February 9, 1923.

GLEE CLUB'S ANNUAL CONCERT SET FOR FEB. 3

The annual concert and dance of the George Washington Glee Club will be given on Saturday evening, February 3rd, at the New City Club. The concert will begin promptly at 8.15, and will last one hour and a half—dancing from then on. The club has practiced every Thursday evening since the first week of school, so it's obvious that they are all set to give the University and its many outside friends an excellent concert. A quartette to show you new things in the way of harmony, and two other specialties that are specialties.

Freshmen should consult some upper classmen concerning Glee Club dances if they were unfortunate in not having been present at the one last year. All things equal, it looks like one big evening. Tickets are now on sale by members of the club, and are selling at one dollar—two dollars for two. Obey that impulse.

G. W. MASONIC CLUB MEETS

The regular monthly meeting of the George Washington University Masonic Club was held in the Gavel Club Rooms on Wednesday, January 10th. Many matters of importance were discussed and acted upon. All Master Masons in good standing among the faculty, student body, and alumni are urged to join the club.

RAZZ BERRY EDITORS PROMISE SURPRISES

To Announce Result of Popularity Contest—Many Features.

TO DISCUSS ACTIVITIES.

Mystery Shrouds Date of Issue, But Opinion Points to Junior Week.

Surprises! And still more surprises! That's what the Razz Berry, G. W.'s supreme and only satirical sheet will present when it is issued next month. Plans have been made and are in progress of fulfillment by which the paper will form the most unusual thing of its kind ever seen on G Street.

Foremost among the features included in the Berry is the announcement of the result of the popularity contest. The students of the school have been well disposed toward the contest, judging from the number of the replies received by the editorial board. Some of the replies are not available for publication, that is, certain students have made use of a morbid humor and sent in names which the Razz Berry can not possibly use. But as a general thing, the names received indicate a wide-spread student interest.

Furthermore the Razz Berry Board, presided over by Howard Martin, have decided upon many other items that will interest the student body. These items include a general discussion of the student activity field, its hopes, fears, possibilities, and suggestions for alleviation of some of the difficulties now confronting it. Certain students who have been in the limelight will not be forgotten. Rather have searching studies been made to present them in their true light. Possibly the Razz Berry will represent a miniature "Mirrors of George Washington University."

Details of the issue are carefully guarded. No one knows just when the paper will come forth, though the general opinion has it that it will appear, as of yore, during Junior Week. It's typographical form, its actual content, and the thousand and one things connected with it will not be for public consumption until after it is published.

P. S.—This addition to the story is made because of the fact that Howard H. Martin, newly appointed editor of the Razz Berry, called at the Hatchet office Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Martin outlined his plans to a member of the Pi-Delta Epsilon bunch, but a keen-eyed Hatchet reporter took in most of the conversation.

Scene: Hatchet office, smoky fire, window rattling, door opens, enter chilly air and Mr. Martin. Greets friend.

Martin: "H'lo. Glad to see you. Just talked to Walker about the Razz Berry. Find I'm editor. Great stuff."

Friend: "Sure; where you been?"

Martin: "Chicago. Just got back."

Friend: "Whatcha gonna put in the Razz Berry?"

Martin: "Everything. Going to pan hell—pardon, Miss—pan thunder out of everybody."

Friend: "Fine. Leave me out though, eh?"

Martin: "Sure. Enough saps around here 'thout you."

Friend: "Go to the duce!"

Martin: "S'all right. By the way, di'ja hear the one about—"

Curtain.

GIRLS MUST ARRANGE OWN SWIMMING HOURS

Owing to the impossibility of securing the exclusive use of a swimming pool at any hour, which is satisfactory to the girls, it becomes necessary for individual swimmers to secure their own accommodations. It is urged, however, that all who can should use the Y. W. C. A. pool at the regular Saturday afternoon dip hour, 3 to 5 p. m., when Coach Beatrice Woodford will be there. Coach Woodford requests that all girls who are unable to go Saturday afternoons should get in touch with her, as she will be glad to coach them at their own hours if possible.

Owing to the approach of the mid-year examinations, this will be the last issue of the Hatchet until February 2, 1923.

DEBATING TEAM CHOSEN TO MEET PENN STATE AND PITT

Debaters Scheduled With North Carolina and Swarthmore on the Allied Debt Question.

At the final debate tryouts held January 9, at the Law School, two teams, composed of C. L. Haycraft, Franklin Knock, Edward L. Scheuffler, Hubert Lee Steed, James E. Stevens, and Oscar A. Zabel, were chosen from the debating squad to represent George Washington University in debates which will be held March 16 with Penn State and the University of Pittsburgh.

The affirmative team of George Washington which will uphold the question, "Resolved, That the United States and the several States should establish courts analogous in principle to the Kansas Court of Industrial Relations," will meet Pittsburgh here, while the negative team will journey to Penn State to debate the same question.

It is also announced that debates have been scheduled with Swarthmore and the University of North Carolina, at which the question of the cancellation of the allied debt will be debated. Tryouts to select teams for these debates will be held at the Law School February 12, at 8 o'clock. Every one interested in debating is urged to try out for one of these teams.

GIRL'S RIFLE TEAM ARE EXPECTING MINOR LETTER

The G. W. U. Girls' Rifle Team, but recently organized, will in all probability be awarded the G. W. minor letter, as all preliminary steps necessary to the official recognition as a University sport have been completed, according to Walter R. Stokes, manager of the G. W. U. Rifle Team.

The first meeting for organization held early in December was well attended by girls who had previous experience in rifle shooting, and meetings for practice have been conducted by Mr. Stokes since that date with most satisfying results.

The girls selected for the team include Katherine Edmonston, captain; Sophia Waldman, Edna Kilpatrick, Isabelle Bunton, and Elizabeth Faris. Alternates are Eleanor Barroll and Nelda Umbeck.

It has been recommended to the council that Women's rifle shooting be given the same recognition as men's rifle shooting, and that Katherine Edmonston, who last year earned a place on the men's team, be appointed managing captain for this season.

Matches have tentatively been arranged with the Central High Girl's Team and the Maryland State Team. Other matches will be scheduled later.

KENT ELECTED FROSH BASKETBALL LEADER

John Kent has been elected Freshmen basketball captain, and will lead the Frosh five on the court for the 1923 season. Kent plays guard, and hails from Western High, where he performed brilliantly on the combination representing that school.

Through his efforts the Freshmen have organized a team that has done well so far and promises to continue through a successful year.

PHI SIGMA TO DANCE

Phi Sigma Sorority will give its first dance at Hotel Lafayette on Saturday evening, February 3rd. Every effort is being made by the members of this fraternity to make this a real live wire time. Meyer Davis' Orchestra will do its part to make the evening a pleasant one. A cordial invitation is extended to all the students of the University. Remember, February 3rd, Hotel Lafayette. If you haven't been asked to buy a ticket, you've been overlooked. We're asking you now.

ARCHITECTS HEAR HARRIS

Prof. Albert L. Harris addressed the Architects at their meeting on January 9. His subject was "Reinforced Concrete Construction," but the lecture took the form of a historical presentation of the many beautiful kinds of architecture since the time of the ancient Greeks, and how the design was largely determined by the construction material. It was really a most interesting lecture. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

PROM BIG FEATURE OF JUNIOR EVENTS

Reception and Play Other Events in Annual Celebration.

TICKET SALE STARTS SOON

Tryouts for Play to be Held Soon—Cast to be Chosen From Entire Student Body.

The Junior Prom will be held at the City Club on the night of February 23, 1923, beginning at 10 p. m. and lasting until 2 of the next morning, according to announcement by Earle Manson, general chairman of the Prom arrangements.

Meyer Davis' Famous Nine, the same outfit that played for the Football Hop, will be on hand to furnish the music until 1 a. m., when they will be relieved by the Le Paradis Orchestra, who will play until the close of the dance.

Refreshments will be served at midnight. It is not yet known of just what the refreshments will consist, but in addition to the usual ice cream and cakes, it is thought that coffee and salad will be offered. Fancy programs will give the ladies a chance to have the favors they so much desire.

Edwin S. Bettleheim is in charge of the sale of tickets, which will be on the market as soon as possible.

The Junior Reception will be held at the Raleigh Hotel, following the Convocation, on the afternoon of February 22nd. The music will start at 5, and the festivities, which include punch, will last until 7.

Plans are in contemplation for the presentation of a Junior Play in co-operation with the newly reorganized G. W. Players. The play as now chosen is Alice Duer Miller's "The Charm School." A cast is being selected and arrangements perfected by Henry James, chairman of the Juniors' Play Committee, and William S. Becker, general director of the players.

It is hoped that the auditorium of one of the high schools will be available for the play, which will be given preceding the Prom.

PRESIDENT HODGKINS HAS BIRTHDAY JAN. 23

CONGRATULATIONS!

President Howard Lincoln Hodgkins has a birthday January 23. This makes the fortieth year of his connection with the University, as he is an Alumnus of the Class of '83.

Mr. Hodgkins is the first president of the University to be chosen from its own alumni. He is a graduate of the Class of 1883, with the degree of A. B., and has also received the degree of A. M., Ph. D., and Sc. D. (hon.). Most of his active life has been spent in the service of his Alma Mater, as tutor, professor of physics, and mathematics, dean of the Engineering School, dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, and (since 1921) president.

He has always taken a deep interest in alumni matters. His administration has been marked by advance not only in enrollment, but better still, in standards, and his progressive policies have been illustrated by the establishment of new departments and the installation of a Dean of Women.

NIXON ELECTED TO LAW SENATE

At a meeting of the Junior Class of the Law School, held last Friday evening, Robert A. Nixon was elected as member of the Law School Senate from his class to fill the vacancy caused by resignation of Don Little. Little has left school and may not be back until next year. Nixon is a popular student and has a high average in scholarship. The election was closely contested between Nixon and Edmund St. John, another student of high standing, the Senator elect winning by a margin of four votes.

G. W. PLAYERS TO MEET

Remember the meeting of the G. W. Players to be held January 31, at 7.45 in the chapel of Lister Hall. Arrangements will be made for a spring play and the organization will be completed. New members are invited.

Give Them a Good Show

Spirit and pep certainly did characterize the recent meeting of the G. W. players. The revival of this old organization is a mighty good thing for the University considering the amount of dramatic ability that has, up to this time, lain latent and inactive. If the life so present at the club's meeting continues throughout the year, George Washington dramatics will have a successful season this term.

Everyone of the officers elected must feel that they had to work for their offices. Such keen competition has not been seen in any other election here for a long time. This competition should lead to the selection of students competent to do their work, and it did in this case. They are all men and women who have had previous experience in this line of student endeavor, and wherever that experience was gained they did meritorious work.

The first opportunity the Players will have to show whether or not they can live up to their previous reputation will come when the Junior Play is produced. Plans are already under way for this production. The Play Committee of the Junior Class is co-operating with the Players. No definite show has been selected yet, but several are under consideration.

If the players put their shoulders to the wheel they will make a success of this show. After this success is met they will be firmly established, and then the road will be open for the rest of the season. An active dramatic association will be in a position to do the University a vast amount of good. It is now up to the Players to do this.

Georgetown and Exams

Exams, that terrible ordeal looming ominously close, will be forgotten for a moment when the two local rivals, George Washington and Georgetown meet in a basketball contest Saturday night.

The most advanced educators over the country contend that one should not cram for examinations and that best results are obtained when the mind is refreshed and invigorated. Nothing is more invigorating or refreshing to the mind than to see a thrilling game, especially if the side you are rooting for is returned the winner. George Washington's floor men have a good chance to triumph; in fact, the best they have had for years.

Forget the exams for one night, come to see and root for a George Washington win over its ancient rival! In this way you will benefit the team with your support and will benefit yourselves by being able to pass a better exam, because your mind will be refreshed and invigorated. Try it! Let's get Georgetown, and start the examination week right! Get Georgetown!!

THE SPY

President.

"Abie's Irish Rose" bids fair to become as much a tradition in Washington as the annual District appropriation war and the District grudge against Congress. The Jewish-Irish marriage mix up begins its ninth week when the curtain rises on Sunday evening, and is still drawing capacity audiences to every performance. Eileen Wilson and Henry Duffy defy tradition and their fathers and are married three times. It is a laugh treat that is sure cure for the blues.

Garrick.

In "The Green Scarab," which opens at the Garrick on Monday evening, John Stapleton has utilized the discoveries of great treasures in the tombs of the kings of ancient Egypt and woven it into a thrilling comedy, the hero of which is an Egyptologist. Featured in the cast are H. Cooper Cliffe, Lillian Walker, Victor Morley, and Henry Mowbray, and the supporting cast is of merit.

National.

"Dulcy," that sweet thing of the last New York season, comes to the National next Monday. Lynn Fontanne is the featured star, and is supported by a very capable company. This "comedy of American social life today" is the product of the imaginations of George Kaufman and Marc Connelly, also responsible for "To the Ladies."

Poli's.

Poli's "wows 'em" next week with "Tangerine," Carle Carlton's music comedy that resided for two years in the village of New York. The cast includes Frank Crumit, Frank Lalor, and the beautiful and charming Julia Sanderson. It is excellent entertainment and a worthy follower of "The Scandals," the memory of which still lingers. The opening is Saturday evening.

This Week.

President: "Abie's Irish Rose." An enjoyable evening for those who like sure fire straight comedy. Has broken all Washington records. Now in its eighth week. Leo Hoyt and Robert Lowe show that they are experts at coaxing laughs. Recommended.

National: "To the Ladies." Helen Hayes and her framed banquet scene has come to town. A satirical play that clearly shows that it is the wife who makes the successful man. The Washington girl carries the burden and makes her husband successful.

Poli's: "Lillom," with Eva Le Gallienne. From the pen of Fraz Molnar. The play that Washington has been waiting for. Superbly acted and staged. This is a distinct and rare treat for those who truly love the fine spots of the theater. Recommended. Garrick: Margaret Anglin is a sailor maid in "The Sea Woman." The superb actress does the best she can with a play that is not worthy of her. It has a few merits, but the thrill for us came when we met Mary, the dramatic inspiration of "The News."

Pick Ups

At Stevens Institute of Technology they have a unique society known as the Sacred Order of Repeating Engineers. Only those to whom the faculty has awarded the degree of M. R. (must repeat) are eligible to membership.

The University of Minnesota has recently launched a campaign for the raising of two million dollars, to be used in the erection of a stadium and an auditorium.

Junior Week at the University of Vermont will be held this year during the latter part of May, and includes baseball games, a parade, and a boat ride.

The University of Maine is the only college in that state that has basketball. Bowdoin, Bates, and Colby have given up the indoor sport for hockey and skating.

In the first of a series of debates in the Inter-Collegiate League held recently, Yale lost to both Dartmouth and Cornell.

The freshmen girls at the University of Louisiana are to wear green caps by the "request" of the upper classmen.

Listen! College boys are becoming better looking each year, according to the director of physical education at the Northwestern University. He attributes this to the new plan adopted almost universally by the high schools of giving two years' health training.

The Cercle Francais of McGill University recently held a debate on the question, "Resolved, That the city girl makes a better wife than the country girl." Check your firearms at the door.

Colby College, Maine, is sending five chosen debaters on a two thousand mile trip throughout the Middle West. They'll discuss the negative side of the same question with eight college teams. The question is: "Resolved, That the principle of the closed shop is justifiable."

How sad the story of Jane McKlack. Her will was strong, But her won't was weak.

The University of Kansas is going to run a unique contest to determine the best shooter on the basketball squad, and incidentally to give the men extra practice. Each man on the squad will be given 1,000 tries at the basket, and the one making the highest score will be given a gold medal. Second highest will be given a silver medal, but we believe that the person most deserving of a medal is the poor chap who has to keep count of the scores.

One of the points brought forward to induce Northwestern University co-eds to join the rifle corps was that the experience gained would be a valuable asset in married life.

PRIZE CONTEST ON WAR DEBT FOR UNDERGRADS

The Institute of International Education is conducting an essay contest among undergraduates on "The Cancellation of Allied Debts." The prizes are $150, $100, and $50.

GOLDSTEIN STARS.

G. W.'s tossers defeated the Blue Ridge College team by the score of 30 to 20 in the Coliseum gym last Tuesday evening. The Hatchettes expected a "walk away," and considered it merely as a practice game for the coming Georgetown tilt, but it was far from being such.

The Mountaineers presented a formidable quint, which, although lacking teamwork, was composed of some of the best floor players that have stacked up against the Buff and Blue men this year. G. W. took the lead at the start, but Blue Ridge climbed rapidly and a merry battle raged until the half ended, 16 to 13, in favor of the boys from New Windsor, Md.

After the first half, G. W. gradually pulled away from the Marylanders, who could not penetrate the stonewall defense that was presented.

Numerous fouls were called in the exceedingly rough contest, and the result was that two Blue Ridge and one G. W. man were compelled to leave the fray via the four personal foul route.

The Buff and Blue men did not seem to be in the best of condition and they will have to show more speed and pep against the Hilltoppers if they expect to win the contest.

"Pat" Goldstein was the star of the fray, for without this sturdy guard, G. W. might have received a set back. He played a great defensive game and brought the ball down the floor and fed to the forwards in a style that was nothing short of spectacular. Blethen, the Blue Ridge center, gave a great exhibition of floorwork and shooting.

The line-up and summary—

G. W.	Blue Ridge

Gosnell.....L. F.....John
Brown.....Center.....Blethen

YANKS ADMINISTER FIRST FLOOR DEFEAT

Hatchette Injuries Contributing Factor—Gosnell Plays Spectacular Game, Cages Five.

G. W.'s basketers met their first defeat of the season when they succumbed to the strong Yankee five last Saturday night by the score of 50 to 25. The Hatchettes put up a plucky battle and staged a rally in the second half, but the Yanks were so far ahead they never could be headed.

Gosnell kept G. W. in the running against the independent champions by his spectacular shooting. Springston also played a good game at both forward and guard positions, while Sauber was the individual star of the Yanks.

The Buff and Blue men were in very bad shape, and the best that was to be expected of them was to hold the Yanks to a low score. Klopsch is out for quite a while, having several sprained ligaments; Daily is nursing a bad cold and a weak ankle; while Goldstein has a sprained ankle, which hinders his play a great deal.

Line-Up and Summary.

Yankes (50)	G. W. (25)
Heddon.....R. F.....Gosnell
Ingley.....L. F.....Springston
Sauber.....Center.....Brown
Catlin.....L. G.....Daily
Ford.....R. G.....Goldstein

Score by halves:

George Washington.....15	10—25

Substitutions: George Washington Hyde for Brown, Solomon for Daily. Court goals, Heddon (3), Ingley (6), Sauber (9), Catlin, Ford (2), Gosnell (5), Springston (3), Daily (2), Goldstein. Free goals, Heddon 8 in 14, Gosnell 3 in 10; Springston 0 in 3, Goldstein 0 in 1. Referee, Mr. Hughes. Umpire, Mr. Fitzgerald. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

SWARTHMORE DEFEAT G. W. GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Bowie and Woodford Star for Locals—
Game Fast and Snappy.

George Washington's girl basketball team lost to Swarthmore by a score of 24 to 13 in the preliminary last Saturday at the Coliseum. The game was featured by brilliant playing on both sides, and was one of the fastest girl's games seen in Washington this season.

Owing to a poor start on the part of the George Washington girls, Swarthmore sprang into a substantial lead, which was only threatened once during a spirited rally in the second quarter. This rally brought the home team within one point of their opponents.

Margaret Bowie and Beatrice Woodford starred for G. W., the former counting three times from the floor, and the latter doing some splendid guarding.

Fouls were called frequently on the George Washington team, and ten of the total twenty-three were turned to account by Virginia Brown, of Swarthmore.

Line-Up and Summary.

Swarthmore (24)	G. W. (13)
Brown.....L. F.....Umbeck
Roberts.....R. F.....Bowie
Footo.....Center.....Bixler
Miller.....C. C.....Carruthers
Sellers.....L. G.....Woodford
Bitler.....R. G.....Wright

Floor goals, Brown 4, Robert 3, Bowie 4, Umbeck, Brewer. Foul goals, Brown 10 in 23, Umbeck 1 in 4. Substitutions, Brown for Footo, Terrill for Carruthers, Brewer for Umbeck. Referee, Miss Smith. Umpire, Miss Stockett. Time of periods, 8 minutes.

GIRLS TEAM DEFEATED BY WILLIAM AND MARY

Last Thursday night was an unlucky one for the G. W. girl basketers, the regulars losing to William and Mary College, and the reserves to the Marjorie Webster School, both games being played in the Holton Arms Gymnasium.

In the Varsity game the Hatchettes were decisively outplayed, the score being 30 to 17. Although the fast William and Mary sextet were never really in danger of losing, the snappy home team saw to it that the game was a hard-fought one. The girls who played were: Bowie and Chickering, forwards; Terrill, center; Brewer and Carruthers, side center; and Woodford, Hastings, and Wright, guards.

The reserve game was a much closer and more evenly-matched affair. The issue was always in doubt, and only two points separated the winners from the losers when the final whistle blew. The score was 26 to 24.

Latest reports show that subscriptions for the stadium at Illinois University now lack only $7,000 of reaching the $25,000 mark.

FROSH FIVE DEFEATED BUSINESS IN FAST GAME

Another victory was registered by the Frosh five when it trounced the Business High team, 21 to 16, as a preliminary contest to the Varsity-Blue Ridge game last Tuesday. It was a hard-fought battle and the Hatchette yearlings had to come from behind in the last half in order to score a win.

Business started off well and got the best of the first half by the score of 11 to 8. With the same determination and fight that has produced former Frosh victories, the Buff and Blue cubs overcame the Business lead by caging four baskets in succession. This put the Freshmen on top, and when the final whistle blew the score stood 21 to 16 in the Hatchettes favor.

Kent, the Frosh captain, played a good game at guard and shot four baskets, while Watt was the best for the Stenographers.

The line-up and summary:

G. W. Frosh	Business
Beeton.....R. F.....Chaconas
Brown.....L. F.....Watt
Taylor.....Center.....Stott
Kent.....R. G.....May
Joynes.....L. G.....Furman

Floor goals, Brown, Kent 4, Joynes, Woerner 3, Chaconas 3, Watt 3. Foul goals, Kent 1 in 4, Joynes 2 in 4, Furman 4 in 9. Substitutions, Woerner for Brown, Beeton for Woerner, Law for Taylor, Lewis for Chaconas, May for Stott, Bangs for May. Referee, Metzler. Umpire, Hughes. Periods, 10 minute quarters.

SPORT NOTES

The G. W.'s dribblers will turn their minds from basketball to examinations. No practice games are scheduled for the crucial week, and this will give them a good chance to make a few "A's."

St. John's and the strong Bucknell quint will play G. W. in the Coliseum after the exam week. St. John's is scheduled for January 30, and Bucknell will show its strength on February 2.

Taylor, one of the Freshmen centers recently made an odd record in a game against the Bliss Electrical School, when he caged a floor goal for the opponents.

In the past G. U.-G. W. basketball games, Glavin, the Hilltoppers star forward, and Dailey, G. W.'s star guard, have staged a battle all their own. Watch them next Saturday.

Due to lack of funds G. W. will be unable to put a baseball team on the diamond this spring, but tennis and track are bound to flourish.

G. W.'s football team will stack up against a schedule in its own class next fall, and should win a majority of these games.

Bettlehem, manager of the Buff and Blue tossers, has gone a step above the other local managers and produced score cards for sale. They contain pictures of all the teams and other valuable information.

WITH THE ALUMNI

Judge John M. Kilitts, LL. B. and LL. M., formerly judge of court of common pleas, third district of Ohio, is now judge of the United States district court, northern district of Ohio. He was a LL. B. from G. W. in 1885, and an LL. M. in 1886. The judge is prominently mentioned by the Ohio newspapers as a possible appointee to fill the vacancy in the United States Supreme Court.

Dr. May Turner Stout Riach, Med. '13, who was in charge of the hospital established by the American Women's Hospital Association in Serbia for one year, and later was instructor in diseases of the eye, ear, nose, and throat in the Women's College, in Constantinople, and in Egypt, is now living in Cairo, Egypt, where her husband, Col. Riach, R. A. M. C., is stationed.

Among the contributors to the Dean Wilbur Portrait Fund are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brannigan, of New York City, both graduates of George Washington University, who have given fifty dollars. It will be remembered that Mrs. Brannigan (Gladys Ames) is a noted artist, and has done much to gain recognition for George Washington University.

FEB. 1 MARKS DEADLINE FOR CHERRY TREE DATA

All Senior summaries as well as pictures must be into the Cherry Tree office not later than February 1. This date is the deadline for such material. J. Joseph W. Palmer, editor of the Cherry Tree, stated that if Seniors were not having pictures made they should at least turn in the following data: Name, college, course, fraternity, and organizations. Data cards may be obtained in the Registrar's office.

If a good yearbook is desired, such material is absolutely essential.

EXAMS CAST PALL OVER
ONCE CHEERFUL STUDES

Sudden Interest Shown in the Library and its Uses by Frivolous Few. To funk or not to funk is the question agitating the G. W. students at present. Exams, the terror of Frosh and the delight of Seniors, are upon the student body.

People who professed a curiosity as to how the Library of Congress looked on the inside, have had a chance to see for themselves and to admire the stately lines of books stretching into the distance.

In the school library students who used it as a good place for fussing, look with disapproval at the hilarious few, who must surely be alumni, that dare to talk even in a whisper.

Instead of poking their noses into affairs which do not concern them, Hatchet reporters are poking their noses into books and are rapidly forming speaking acquaintance with their various instructors.

A blue haze hovers over the school, enveloping it in a pall—but wait until week after next—just wait!

NO SENIOR LAW MIXER
RECEPTION FEB. 15

The Senior Law Class has decided not to hold their annual "Mixer" in Lisner Hall this year. More pretentious arrangements have been made by the coming graduates for what they term to be their last social affair at the University, unless a small number of the class decide to take post-graduate work.

The Mixer will be in the form of a reception and dance, and will be held at the Hotel Lafayette on Friday evening, February 16th. "Every effort is being made," said Joseph Jordan, president of the class, "to make it a memorial evening in the annals of the class and school." Members of the class will be admitted upon presentation of their class tickets.

BENCHERS, NEW LEGAL WILL BE INSTALLED

The faculty of the Law School has ratified the organization of the "Benchers," a legal honor fraternity. Membership in this organization depends entirely upon scholarship and is automatic. It is built along the lines of the "Coif," the national legal honor fraternity. An attempt had been made to have a chapter of the Coif placed in George Washington, but on account of the University being a part time school this could not be brought about. So not to be undone, a number of the "A" students petitioned the faculty some time back for permission to form such an organization in the Law School, and this was granted, and so the Benchers makes its appearance.

A student must have attained an average of "A" for two years to be eligible to be elected a "Term Bencher." After graduation "Benchers" are elected from the Term Benchers. To be a Bencher one must have graduated "with distinction" and be among the first ten per cent of his class.

LICENSES FOR CIVIL ENGINEERS, ALDEN'S PLAN

At a meeting of the George Washington University Society of Civil Engineers, held in Lisner Hall last Friday night, Professor Alden spoke on the relationship existing between lawyers and engineers with special emphasis on the recent Knickerbocker disaster. He brought out the point that engineers and architects in the District should be licensed.

This was one of a series of talks by men who are well up in their respective lines regarding the different phases of the disaster. At the conclusion of the address an open discussion was held, and many interesting points were brought out. The next meeting will be announced after exams.

PHYSICS INSTRUCTORS

On Saturday, January 13, the members of the Faculty Club were entertained by the instructing staff of the department of Physics. Professor Brown, assisted by Professor Cheney, Dr. Brombacker, Mr. White, and others, gave an interesting and instructive exhibition of some of the more spectacular phenomena in the field of physics, and the various physical laboratories were inspected. Dean Henning, president of the Faculty Club, opened the evening's activities with felicitous introductory remarks.

WOMEN'S LEGAL CLUB

Miss Sue White, counsel of the National Woman's Party, addressed the Women's Legal Club at a regular meeting held December 20, 1932, at the Law School Building. She had as her topic the "National Woman's Party," giving an interesting as well as instructive outline of its history, growth, and purpose. Miss Haefl, assistant treasurer, assisted in soliciting members for the National Woman's Party.
